The offender resides with his wife and three daughters at 24 Harris- Bushville Road, Harris, NY 12742. The offender reports to this office as directed and provides all required materials in a timely manner. Home visits have also been conducted on a regular basis. Criminal record checks conducted throughout the term of supervision have revealed no additional criminal involvement on the part of Castro. He has maintained compliance with all supervision conditions. Castro has now completed two years of the three year term of supervised release without incident.

Pursuant to 18 USC 3583(e)(1) the Court is permitted to terminate a term of supervised release at any time after the expiration of one year of supervised release if it is satisfied that such action is warranted by the conduct of the defendant and in the interest of justice.

U.S. Attorney's Position:

We have contacted the U.S. Attorney's Office and they have no opposition to our request for early termination.

Recommendation:

We believe this offender has made a positive adjustment to supervision and feel at this time that justice has been served and further community supervision is not necessary. We respectfully recommend early termination be granted at this time. Should Your Honor concur, kindly sign below and the attached Probation Form 35.

Respectfully Submitted,

CHRIS J. STANTON
Chief U.S. Probation Officer
